Form 990 Required: (X) Yes No ()
Avance Ruling Period Ends: December 31, 1991

Dear Sir or Madam:

Based on the information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Your exemption under section 501(c)(3) is effective April 2, 1987. Contributions to your organization prior to that date are not deductible by donors.

Based on the information you supplied, we recognize you as exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code for the period beginning May 3, 1985, your incorporation date, through April 1, 1987. Contributions to your organization during this period of time are not deductible by the donor.

You need not file Federal income tax returns for that period. You are, however, liable for FICA (social security taxes) and FUTA (Federal unemployment taxes) during the exemption under Code section 501(c)(4).

Your exemption under section 501(c)(3) is not effective on the date you were organized because you did not file your application for recognition of exemption within 15 months from the end of the month in which you were organized, as required by section 1.508-1(a)(2)(i) of the Income Tax Regulations.

Because you are treated as a newly created organization we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code. However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a publicly supported organization of the type described in section 509(a)(2).

Tulsa Oklahomans For Human Rights, Inc.

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization, and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period. This advance ruling period begins on the effective date of your exemption and ends on the date shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization so long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test. If, however, you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods. Also, in the event you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your exemption for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940.

Grantors and donors may rely on the determination that you are not a private foundation until 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period. In addition, if you submit the required information within the 90 days, grantors and donors may continue to rely on the advance determination until the Service makes a final determination of your foundation status. However, if notice that you will no longer be treated as a section 509(a) organization as published in the Internal Revenue Bulletin, grantors and donors may not rely on this determination after the date of such publication. Also, a grantor or donor may not rely on this determination if he was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act that resulted in your loss of section 509(a) status, or acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would be removed from classification as a section 509(a) organization.

Effective April 2, 1987 donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

With respect to your 501(c)(3) exemption you are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA). However, effective January 1, 1984, unless specifically excepted, you must pay taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) for each employee who is paid $100 or more in a calendar year.

Organizations that are not private foundations are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions concerning these taxes, please let us know.

Tulsa Oklahomans For Human Rights, Inc.

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation is changed, you should let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your status. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

If the yes box at the top of this letter is checked, you are required to file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. The return is due by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. The law imposes a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, for failure to file the return on time.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

If you have any further questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown at the beginning of this letter.

Sincerely,

Glenn Cagle
District Director

Dear Applicant:

Before we can determine whether your organization is exempt from Federal income tax, we must have enough information to show that you have met all legal requirements. You did not include information needed to make that determination on your Form 1023, Application for Recognition of Exemption Under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

To help us determine whether your organization is exempt from Federal income tax, please send us the requested information by the above date. We can then complete our review of your application.

If we do not hear from you within that time, we will assume you do not want us to consider the matter further and will close your case. In that event, as required by Code section 6104(c), we will notify the appropriate State officials that, based on the information we have, we cannot recognize you as an organization of the kind described in Code section 501(c)(3). As a result, the Internal Revenue Service will treat your organization as a taxable entity. If we receive the information after the response due date, we may ask you to send us a new Form 1023.

In addition, if you do not provide the requested information in a timely manner, we will consider that you have not taken all reasonable steps to secure the determination you requested. Under Code section 7428(b)(2) your not taking all reasonable steps in a timely manner to secure the determination may be considered as failure to exhaust administrative remedies available to you within the Service. Therefore, you may lose your rights to a declaratory judgment under Code section 7428.

Thank you for your cooperation.

TULSA OKLAHOMANS FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

Please mail the information requested in this letter to the following address:

EP/EO Group 7216
611 East 6TH Street, Room 484
Austin, TX 78701

Since we talked on the telephone, I realized that we did not have an executed Form 872-C in the file so that we can issue you an advance foundation classification under section 509(a)(2). Please complete and return the enclosed Form 872-C.

You did not file your application within the 15-month filing period established by section 508; therefore, we, at the District level, can only recognize you as exempt from Federal income tax under section 50(c)(3) from April 2, 1987, the date your application was filed. We can use the Form 1024 you filed to recognize you exempt under section 501(c)(4) for the period prior to that date. Contributions to you would not be deductible while you were exempt under section 501(c)(4) but this does not appear to be a problem. Please advise us if this is acceptable to you.

If it is not and you want retroactive recognition of exemption under section 501(c)(3) to the date of your incorporation, please submit the information required by the enclosed copy of Revenue Procedure 79-63. We will forward your request to our National Office for consideration.

Re: Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights,
Inc.

Dear Mr. Thayer:

I am in receipt of your July 7, 1987 memo concerning the above organization and their request for exempt status pursuant to 501 (c) (3) of the code. I attach a copy of your letter for identification purposes.

In Paragraph One of your request you desired further information that the organization operated exclusively for exempt purposes. You particularly indicated concern with reference to sporting and social activities. These activities are insignificant in relation to the overall program of the group. To the extent that social and sporting events are conducted, the ultimate purpose of this type of activity is to promote the group's purposes defined in Part 3 of the Application Form 1023. The only sporting event the organization currently conducts is co-sponsoring a softball tournament called Southwest Invitational Tournament. The primary sponsor is the Sooner Softball League of which the organization is not affiliated. However, Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights does provide some manpower and publicity in the monthly newsletter. From the organization's standpoint the tournament is a fund raiser. In exchange for the manpower and publicity the group receives income from certain concessions operated for the tournament. In addition, from the organization's standpoint, the co-sponsorship provides favorable publicity and Tulsa community recognition. Two years ago the Mayor of Tulsa participated in the opening ceremonies of the tournament. Considerable membership interest is also generated by the co-sponsorship. By encouraging athletic participation the organization also feels that prejudicial stereotypes are discouraged. In any event, the tournament co-sponsorship is very insignificant to the overall picture of the group. So too are general social events. There are virtually no social events which are sponsored solely for social reasons. The organization may conduct a social event to encourage new membership or donations. The organization conducts a Christmas banquet each year to recognize participation in the organization. The monthly meetings may also be preceded by cookies and punch which is certainly "social" but facilitates the comfort of the people attending the program. The cost of these limited social events is usually borne by individual donations and again, the same as the tournament, are very insignificant to the organization's overall program and purpose.

In response to your inquiry in Paragraph 3 concerning the program "Fantasy in Red", this has for several years been the organization's primary fund raiser. Each year this talent show raises $2,500.00 to $4,000.00 net profit. The funds are used solely for exempt purposes. There is no written program of the event. Although one might argue that the sponsorship of a talent show fosters exempt purposes, the primary purpose of the show is simply to raise money. This is not dissimilar to charity balls or festivals to which other organizations avail themselves. We are aware for example that the local heart association sponsors a dance. The local theatre group sponsors a Halloween party. The local lung association sponsors a dinner. Just like these other organizations the talent show encourages donations through the ticket price and sale of beverages. The proceeds are then placed in the organization's general fund and used for exempt purposes.

The primary focus currently for the organization, as well as its historical purpose, has been for health education. The organization in the Tulsa community has been a leader in the dissemination of pamphlets and brochures concerning safe sexual practices in relation to the Aids epidemic. The organization sponsored the first hospice program to people afflicted with Aids. The hospice volunteers, in addition to individual visitation and counseling, provide routine errand service including the transportation of those afflicted to hospitals and doctors. The hospice service also provided food and medical supplies on occasion to those people without financial ability to pay for these items. The organization, through several special programs, has made the community of Tulsa aware of the disease and ways of preventing exposure to the disease. The organization has sponsored numerous programs with medical professionals, not only to educate the public concerning the disease, but to educate health care specialists themselves. The organization paid for the local City Medical Director to attend seminars concerning Aids. The doctor then reported back to the organization concerning his findings. The organization not only has encouraged anonymous testing for exposure to the disease but has provided people with facilities to actually conduct the testing. Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights participated in the original formation of the Tulsa Aids Task Force which is a coalition between city hospitals, Red Cross and the Mayor's office. The task force, in addition to promoting an overall awareness of safe sexual practices, is working to develop a uniform and compassionate policy for treatment of Aids patients in the entire community. The task force, along with Tulsa Oklahomans for Human Rights has promoted and encouraged an organization called Shanti, which provides persons afflicted with Aids with more substantial hospice services. In addition, the organization, through the operation of the community help line is able to advise callers concerning the disease. It provides minor counseling, medical referrals, general information on safe sexual practices.

In addition to the organization's involvement with the Aids crisis, many health clinic programs have been sponsored by the group concerning general health care and treatment of venereal disease. For several years the organization has worked with the Tulsa County Health Department sponsoring free testing for venereal disease. The organization has also distributed brochures and pamphlets concerning venereal disease.

Recently the organization sponsored a Health Fair. Such topics as stress reduction, cholesterol problems and diet improvement were addressed.

Since the organization's inception group members have offered a round-the-clock help line. The help line is affiliated with other types of organizations in offering crisis counseling. The help line regularly disseminates Aids information to callers and also makes medical and legal referrals. Several thousand calls each year are handled by help line volunteers.

The organization has sponsored "Project Straight Talk" for several years. This program offers speakers to groups requesting information. For example, within the past year, project volunteers have addressed university classes at Tulsa University, Tulsa Junior College, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University and Wichita State University in addition to local church and civic groups. The Straight Talk program, in addition to disseminating information concerning Aids, attempts to dispel myths concerning homosexuals.

The organization conducts monthly programs on a wide range of topics. Currently the Tulsa City Library makes its facilities available to the group. This program is attended by 75 to 100 people each month and addresses such issues as sexual preference discrimination, legal problems with gay parents, abused women, community participation and involvement. Certain recent programs and future programs planned stress Aids education.

During election years the organization has solicited voter registration and the registrars are made available for group and community facilities and functions. The organization, while not asserting political stances, advises members of legislation which affect the community.

The activities then of the organization center around health service and the elimination of discrimination based upon sexual preference. No doubt in the immediate future the activities will be the same. It is very important to the community of Tulsa that an organization such as this obtains tax exempt status. This is particularly true in light of the current Aids epidemic. Thousands of people have benefited through the dissemination of information by the organization concerning the disease in addition to specific relief in the field of hospice and counseling services. If the organization obtains tax exempt status more information and programs will be available to the public.

At this time the organization does not wish to request qualification under Section 501 (c) (4) of the code.

Please advise if we may transmit additional information to you. We will be sending to you shortly copies of pamphlets and brochures made available to the general public.

Your prompt action will be very much appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Our Letter Dated:

Advance Ruling Period Ends:

Caveat Applies:
Yes

Dear Applicant:

Our letter of the above date asked for information we needed to make a final determination of your private foundation status under section 509(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Since we have not received the information, you are, under section 508(b) of the Code, presumed to be a private foundation as of the 91st day after the end of your advance ruling period, shown above. In addition, you are presumed to be a private foundation as of the first day of your first tax year for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940 of the Code.

This presumption, however, is rebuttable. If you meet the requirements of section 509(a)(2), you may establish that fact by submitting a written request for a determination.

Your exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Code is still in effect.

Based on this presumption, you are required to file Form 990-PF, Return of Private Foundation or Section 4947(a)(1) Trust Treated as a Private Foundation, for the current and all subsequent years. The Form 990-PF must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. There is a penalty of $10 a day, up to a maximum of $5,000, when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay.

Since you are presumed to be a private foundation as of the first day of your first tax year for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940 of the Code, you are required to file a limited Form 990-PF for each year covered by your advance ruling. Complete only the general information at the top of the form, column (b) of Part I, all of Parts IV and VI (or all of Parts VII and II, respectively, for tax years beginning before 1985), sign the return and pay all taxes due, with interest. If you file within 90 days from the date of this letter, you will not be subject to the penalty provisions of sections 6651 and 6652. Attach a statement to the returns explaining that you have reasonable cause for filing late (your advance ruling) and cite Revenue Procedure 79-8, 1979-1 C.B. 487. The limited Forms 990-PF described in this paragraph should be filed with this office.

Because you are presumed to be a private foundation as of Mar. 29, 1992 all parts of the Form 990-PF for 1992 should be completed. However, the figures for column (c) of Part I, all of Part IX, Part X, Part XIII, Part XIV, and Part XV (if applicable), and your answers to the questions in Part VII should reflect only the period beginning on the above date and ending on the last day of your tax year. Forms 990-PF for subsequent years should be completed and filed according to the instructions for those forms.

Since you have not provided the information needed to make a final determination of your private foundation status, it is considered by the Internal Revenue Service that you have not taken all reasonable steps to secure the determination you requested. Under section 7428(b)(2) of the Code, not taking all reasonable steps, in a timely manner, to secure the determination may be considered as a failure to exhaust administrative remedies available to you within the Service, and may preclude the issuance of a declaratory judgment in the matter under judicial proceedings.

If the heading of this letter indicates that a caveat applies, the caveat below is an integral part of the letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your private foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

District Director

Response Due Date:
July 7, 1992

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your response to our Letter 1046 dated November 22, 1991. Before we can make a final determination of your foundation status we will need the additional information shown on the attached list. This information must be submitted by the response due date shown above.

If we do not receive the information, we will presume that you are a private foundation in accordance with section 1.501-1(b) of the Income Tax Regulations. For purposes of sections 1361 and 4949 of the Internal Revenue Code, you will be treated as a private foundation as of the first day of your first tax year for purposes of section 1.501-1(b)(1) of the regulations. Also, as required by section 514(c), we will notify the appropriate State officials of your classification as a private foundation.

If you do not provide the requested information in a timely manner, the Internal Revenue Service will consider that you have not taken all reasonable steps to secure the determination you requested. Under Code section 7429(a)(2), if you do not take all reasonable steps in a timely manner to secure the determination, this may be considered as a failure to exhaust remedies that are then available to you against the Service. Therefore, you may wish your actions in a delinquent matter to be considered as final.

All correspondence should be addressed under the name of the individual acting on behalf of the organization.

Please call the office which prepared this letter if you have any questions.

Dear Applicant:

Our letter of the above date stated that we had determined your organization is exempt under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) and that you would be treated as a publicly supported organization and not as a private foundation during your advance ruling period. This was based on our determination that you could reasonably be expected to be an organization described in sections 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) and 509(a)(1) or in section 509(a)(2).

We also stated that at the end of your advance ruling period you would have to establish that you were in fact an organization described in one of the above sections.

Our records indicate that your advance ruling period begins and ends on the dates shown above. Your exempt status as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) is still in effect. However, to establish that you are a publicly supported organization described in sections 170(b)(1)(a)(vi) and 509(a)(1) or in section 509(a)(2), please complete the attached Form 8734, Support Schedule for Advance Ruling Period, for each of the tax years in your advance ruling period.

The information requested in this letter is required to support your claim to be other than a private foundation. It is needed in addition to any required Form 990 or other annual return. Please send it to us within 90 days from the end of your advance ruling period.

If we do not receive this information, we will presume you are a private foundation and you will be treated as a private foundation as of the first day of your first tax year for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940 of the Code. In addition, if you do not provide the information by the time requested, it will be considered by the Internal Revenue Service that you have not taken all reasonable steps to secure the determination you requested. Under section 7428(b)(2) of the Code, not taking all reasonable steps, in a timely manner, to secure the determination may be considered as a failure to exhaust administrative remedies available to you within the Service, and may preclude the issu-tive remedies available to you within the Service, and may preclude the issuance of a declaratory judgment in the matter under judicial proceedings.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,
